The Pleasure of Visiting Saint Joseph University of Beirut (USJ)

Yesterday, I had the distinct pleasure of visiting the esteemed Saint Joseph University of Beirut (USJ). Upon my arrival, I was warmly welcomed by Rector Father Salim Daccache along with Professors Richard Maroun, Ursula El Hage, Nadine Riachi Haddad PhD, and Hadi SAWAYA. Our discussions centered around exploring collaborative opportunities between Abu Dhabi University (ADU) and USJ, focusing on how we can enhance our academic partnerships.

Founded in 1875, Saint Joseph University of Beirut has proudly celebrated 150 years of academic excellence and a steadfast commitment to education. Throughout its illustrious history, the university has served as a beacon of knowledge and innovation, profoundly shaping generations of leaders, thinkers, and change-makers.

As we navigate the challenges of modern education, institutions like USJ continue to play a vital role in fostering intellectual growth and cultural exchange, and I am excited about the potential synergies between our universities.
