Abu Dhabi University's College of Law: New Academic Programs

I am pleased to announce that the College of Law at Abu Dhabi University (ADU) has begun recruiting students for the Fall Semester of 2025/2026 for the following new academic programs, approved by the Commission for Academic Accreditation:

1. Master of Law in Cyberlaw and Artificial Intelligence
2. PhD in Law

Abu Dhabi University's College of Law is renowned for its exceptional legal education that offers aspiring legal professionals unmatched opportunities. The College's unwavering dedication to academic excellence, practical training, and fostering an innovative culture make it an ideal choice for students pursuing a career in law. It offers a Bachelor of Law degree as well as two Masters programs in Public and Private Law in addition to the new programs.

The College places great importance on practical training and experiential learning, recognizing their crucial role in shaping competent legal professionals. By establishing strong partnerships with prominent law firms, government agencies, and international organizations, the College provides students with invaluable internships and real-world legal experiences.

Through these partnerships, students gain hands-on exposure to legal research, brief writing, mock trials, and negotiations. This practical experience enhances their critical thinking abilities, advocacy skills, and their ability to navigate complex legal scenarios. The College's commitment to practical training ensures that graduates possess a strong foundation to succeed in their legal careers.

The College actively fosters intellectual discourse and the exchange of ideas through regular seminars, workshops, and conferences. Its faculty members actively publish their research in reputable legal journals, solidifying the College's reputation as a hub for cutting-edge legal scholarship.

Under the guidance of the esteemed Dean, Prof. Talaat Dowidar and the head of department Dr Dina Imad Joumblatt, Ph.D., the College of Law is dedicated to providing a transformative educational experience that prepares students to excel in the dynamic and competitive legal landscape.

As Abu Dhabi University continues to nurture a culture of academic excellence, the College of Law remains at the forefront of shaping the next generation of legal thinkers, innovators, and leaders.
