🌍 Exciting Event: Sustainable, Smart, & Healthy: Building the Cities of the Future 🌍

The Department of Environmental and Public Health at the College of Health Sciences - Abu Dhabi University headed by my esteemed colleague Dr. Dr. Rahaf Ajaj, CSci, SFHEA and the German Embassy Abu Dhabi are delighted to invite you, as part of the Climate Talks Initiative, to an upcoming co-hosted event titled "Sustainable, Smart, & Healthy: Building the Cities of the Future," which promises to be inspiring and impactful.

How can cities become more sustainable and resilient when faced with climate change? This event will bring together thought leaders, policymakers, and experts to explore practical solutions for sustainable urban development in the UAE 🇦🇪 and beyond. Through expert insights and interactive workshops, attendees will gain invaluable knowledge on climate resilience strategies, global best practices, and actionable recommendations for green technologies and smart city solutions.
