Exciting News: Three Conference Proceedings

Congratulations to the Editors and Authors of The 1st International Conference on Advancing Sustainable Futures (ICASF 2023) Scopus Indexed Conference Proceedings, organized by Abu Dhabi University, which will be published by Springer in May 2025. These volumes feature valuable contributions from our ADU faculty and Global Engagement Program (GEP) members, focusing on sustainability, energy solutions, and green infrastructure.

The published volumes are:

 Territorial Landscapes Solutions for Sustainable Energy and Food Security

These contributions highlight the impactful and collaborative work by ADU faculty and GEP members in driving innovation and advancing global sustainability research. This collaboration demonstrates the power of cross-border academics, where we can harness diverse perspectives, expertise, and resources to create meaningful, scalable solutions that have a lasting impact on sustainable futures.

We are incredibly proud of this achievement that fosters a vibrant international research community, which reflects ADU's dedication to innovation, sustainability, and global engagement at the core of its mission and strategic vision.

Join GEP today and connect with a global community of researchers and innovators.

Additionally, we are proud to inform you that we are already in the process of publishing the ICASF 2024 proceedings, which will also be indexed in Scopus and published by Springer. This ongoing commitment further exemplifies Abu Dhabi University's leadership in sustainability research and reinforces our dedication to fostering international collaboration for sustainable futures.

A special thanks to IEREK Conferences, our Editor, and Springer, the Publisher, for their invaluable support in making this publication a reality.

Congratulations once again to everyone involved! Stay tuned for the upcoming ICASF 2025, which we'll be announcing very soon.
