HE Prof. Amr Ezzat Salama, Secretary General of the Association of Arab Universities: Inspirational Leadership

I would like to express my gratitude to HE Prof. Amr Ezzat Salama, Secretary General of the Association of Arab Universities, for joining us for three days during our successful 2nd International Conference on Advancing Sustainable Futures 2024. He delivered an inspirational keynote address and shared his knowledge and experience throughout the event. I cannot find enough words to thank him for his support, guidance, and encouragement. He is playing a major role in transforming higher education in the Arab world. HE Prof Amr is a leader of the highest ethics, he commands the utmost respect from our community. Previously, he served as the Minister of Higher Education in Egypt and as President of the University of Helwan, among other positions.

The Association of Arab Universities (AARU) is a non-governmental organization with an independent legal status. Its membership currently includes 280 Arab universities. AARU was established in 1964 following a resolution from the Arab League. A temporary secretariat was formed in Cairo, Egypt, and in 1969, a permanent secretariat was designated. Its headquarters has been in Amman, the capital of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, since 1984. ADU is a member of this Association.

HE Prof Amr is supported by an exceptional team, including Prof. ANAS RATIB ALSOUD, Executive Director, and Lina Albitar, Director of General Administration.
