

Ghassan Aouad

Chancellor of Abu Dhabi University, Past President ...
19h

Please look at this interview, you may find it useful, thank you Phil Baty for publicizing it. It is an honor for me that you posted it, especially that it comes from a leader of the highest quality

Phil Baty

Chief Global Affairs Officer, Times Higher Education (...
19h

“Successful people have a combination of emotional intelligence, cultural intelligence, social intelligence, digital intelligence, media intelligence, charisma intelligence”.

So says Ghassan Aouad, chancellor of Abu Dhabi University in this “talking leadership” interview with Times Higher Education.

Born in Lebanon, with leadership roles spanning the UK, United Arab Emirates, Kuwait and Bahrain, Aouad knows a thing or two about successful leadership.

One skill that he says he has picked up from his travels is cultural intelligence. “I took what’s good from every single culture, in fact. So when I was in the UK, I managed to get the best of the UK culture. And, of course, I brought my own value system, and people respected you for that, because you are integrated and not isolated at all.”

Read the full be interview and share your thoughts on good leadership.

<https://lnkd.in/eaWFp79p>

Talking leadership: Ghassan Aouad on cultural intelligence and freedom of speech
timeshighereducation.com