Association of Arab Universities Meeting at Sultan Qaboos University

In Muscat, Oman, attending the Annual Meeting of the Association of Arab Universities which includes over 50 societies and councils dealing with specific disciplines, alongside my colleague Prof.sherine Farouk. The meeting is hosted by Sultan Qaboos University, an impressive institution dedicated to academic excellence.

During the meeting, chaired by HE Prof Amr Salama, I had the pleasure, alongside my colleague Prof.sherine Farouk of meeting the visionary President of Sultan Qaboos University, His Highness Dr. Fahad Bin Al Julanda Al Said.

At the annual meeting, my esteemed colleague, Prof. Sherine, introduced the Arab Universities Knowledge Network on Climate Change, which will be hosted by Abu Dhabi University on behalf of the Association of Arab Universities. This network aims to unify Arab universities in a collaborative effort to assess and report on the state of knowledge about climate change. The Arab Council for Social Responsibility and Sustainability, headed by my good friend Prof. Randa Rizk, will be a strategic partner, and the network will be led by Prof.sherine Farouk.
