International Conference on 'Refugee Women's Health in Light of Climate Change'

Yesterday the International Conference on 'Refugee Women's Health in Light of Climate Change' took place. Hosted by Abu Dhabi University and organized by the Sheikha Fatima Fund for Refugee Women, the event was held under the patronage of H.H. Sheikha Fatima bint Mubarak, Mother of the Nation, in collaboration with the Emirates Red Crescent. The conference tackles the pressing challenges refugee women face, including the impact of climate change, political conflict, and healthcare access. Special thanks to the event sponsors, the Department of Health – Abu Dhabi, First Abu Dhabi Bank, and Wizz Air.

The conference took place in the presence of HE Sheikh Nahyan bin Mubarak AlNahyan, Minister of Tolerance and Coexistence, who delivered an inspirational speech on behalf H.H. Sheikha Fatima bint Mubarak, Mother of the Nation, HE Dr. Maitha Al Shamsi, Minister of State and Chair of the Supreme Committee for the Sheikha Fatima Fund for Women Refugee, HE Dr. Hamdan Mussallam Al Mazrouei, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Emirates Red Crescent, HE Dr. Ali Al Dhaheri, Chairman of Abu Dhabi University, HE Rashid Al Mansoori, Secretary-General of the Emirates Red Crescent, HE Hamoud AlJunaibi Undersecretary General, Emirates Red Crescent, HE Dr. Noura Al Ghaithi, the Undersecretary of Department of Health, Futoon Al Mazrouei, a board member of the Sheikha Fatima Fund for Women Refugee and Head of Banking Services at First Abu Dhabi Bank, and Johan Eidhagen, the Managing Director of Wizz Air and many other dignitaries.
