Tune into a podcast featuring my interview with Professor Judyth Sachs, the Chief Academic Officer of Studiosity at:

<https://lnkd.in/dbqBfwaH>

During the podcast, I share my experiences as a student during the Lebanese Civil War, the importance of promoting tolerance and inclusivity among diverse student groups, how technical competencies, emotional intelligence and cultural awareness distinguish ADU graduates, and the vital role universities play in educating students, staff, and communities about ethics and integrity in the age of AI.

I am grateful to Studiosity and Professor Judyth Sachs for giving me this opportunity.
