Honorary Recognition by the Arab Council for Social Responsibility

I am pleased to announce that on the sidelines of the international conference "Arab World Day for Social Responsibility," held at the Arab League headquarters, HE Prof. Amr Ezzat Salama, Secretary-General of the Association of Arab Universities and Honorary President of the conference, presented me with a plaque in recognition of my tangible contributions to social responsibility. This was done in the presence of Professor Randa Rizk, Secretary General of the Arab Council for Social Responsibility who nominated me for this award. My colleague, Prof. Sherine Farouk, accepted the award on my behalf in front of many national and international dignitaries, including Minister Plenipotentiary Nada Al-Ajizi, Director of the Department of Sustainable Development and International Cooperation at the Arab League, who is also the Honorary President of the Conference.

Professor Randa Rizk, said "Professor Ghassan Aouad continues to lead Abu Dhabi University in academic and research excellence at national, regional, and global levels. He enhances the university's standing in international academic rankings, establishing it as a prestigious institution that upholds the highest standards in teaching, research, future foresight, and competitive service in social responsibility. It is noteworthy that Professor Aouad has extensive leadership and academic experience, having served as President of the Applied Science University in Bahrain for over eight years before joining Abu Dhabi University. He holds a Master of Science in Construction (1987) and a Ph.D. in Integrated Planning Systems for the Construction Sector (1991) from Loughborough University in the United Kingdom."

Additionally, several prominent figures in social responsibility from various countries were also honored.

This recognition took place during the Arab World Conference on Social Responsibility and Sustainable Development for Arab Universities on Monday, September 16, 2024, at the Arab League headquarters in Cairo, under the auspices of the Association of Arab Universities and in collaboration with the Department of Sustainable Development and International Cooperation at the Arab League.
