Celebrating a Milestone: Graduation Ceremonies Ignite Joy!

What an extraordinary day it was yesterday! We proudly celebrated not one, but two graduation ceremonies honoring our remarkable undergraduate students from the College of Health Sciences and the College of Law, along with our postgraduate students from the College of Law and the College of Arts, Education, and Social Sciences. These ceremonies were not just about individual accomplishments; they represented the vibrant spirit and innovative strength of our beloved institution.

The atmosphere was electric as we witnessed the pure joy radiating from graduates, their families, and faculty alike. Each graduate's journey has been a testament to hard work, dedication, and resilience, making it truly heartwarming to see their dreams come to fruition.

And the excitement continues! Today, we will host the final two ceremonies for our undergraduate students in the College of Business and the College of Arts, Education, and Social Sciences.

By the end of this week, we will have celebrated a total of eight graduation ceremonies, with an impressive 1,130 graduates taking part. This milestone will push our total alumni count to over 33,000!

A heartfelt thank you to my esteemed colleagues: VC Dr. Hamad Odhabi, Provost Professor Barry O'Mahony, Dean Sofyan Maghaydah, Dean Talaat Dowidar, Dean Sreethi Nair, Mr. Bassam Mura, MBA, Ms. Noor Al Masri, Mr. Zulfiqar Ali, Mr. Sameer Jaradat, Mr. Waleed Abdelrahman, MBA, Ms. Aseel Fathallah Agha, and everyone from our various university divisions. Your hard work, along with our dedicated student volunteers and MCs, has made these ceremonies a resounding success!
